

Simulated Retirement Facility

Fast-track master planning of mixed use, multi-phased residential/office development on site with existing hospital and parking, in a developed neighborhood. Uses include a nursing home, which must begin construction during hospital demolition; assisted living center; two 32-unit condominium buildings; and professional office buildings with second-story apartments.

Original Photograph

Aerial Photographic Simulation

Simulation of proposed retirement facility